HARSH COMMENTS ON AMERICANS-PAPAL SYM-PATHIES AND CARLIST SCHEMES

DISCUSSED. London, March 19.-Madrid advices of Wednesday say the Government organ, "El Globo," assumes a pares the United States to "an immense Maine floating between the Atlantic and the Pacific, some of whose crew, having lost their heads, are seeking to force open the magazine in order to blow it up. President McKinley, as the commander, is repre sented as "doing his best to restrain his unruly

"El Globo" attributes the loss of the Maine to "had storage of her enormous quantity of explosives, arising either from too hasty preparations war or from want of proper discipline on rd." The paper remarks, in parentheses, that "agents were entirely internal," adding:

But there may be external agencies that will bring about the National downfall, to which the on is directly heading."

Quoting some paragraphs from the "Correspon saying that war would affect other nations sides Spain, "El Globo" remarks:

To this we may add that the declarations atd to the Kaiser (Emperor William of Gerdeclarations which were sought to be denow confirmed afresh in such an aumanner that all doubt has vanished on the We mention this declaration of the not that we place the hope of our safety his or any foreign aid, but in order to complete we ought at the present time to have spositions of the European Chancelleries especting this event. Spain has shown that she prepare herself in silence and with greater ency than her adversary; but, apart from the of Spain, there undoubtedly exists external agents who may exert a most dismal influence, once it is set in motion. We estimate as worse than defeat a European coalition against the United

SORRY FOR THE UNITED STATES.

The paper referred to then enumerates the po sible evils it foresees for the United States, and with the following reflection:

"Into this evil plight the cupidity of a few has placed the Nation which lies peacefully anchored between the Atlantic and the Pacific, and which tonds itself in the dilemma of having to retire or find herself in a much worse position than Spain, which, in truth, is greater in spirit than in

"Heraldo." Independent, is in an equally happy mood. While admitting it is among the first to point out Spanish defects, it confesses it can only smile at seeing the Yankees devoting themselves to the difficult task of trying to frighten is by clamor and warlike display."

Continuing, the "Heraldo" compares the attitude of the United States to that of "a boulevard swagwho flaunts his dollars to attract the attenon of a fine lady passing by," adding that Spain, like a woman of good breeding, confident in herwill continue her course, brave and alone, and will pay no attention to foreign posing.

Madrid, March 8.—The "Liberal" is of the opin-ion that the "clouds continue to gather." It says: "A fresh cause of alarm about which much is said but little is known was added yesterday. It is rumored that the Bank of France has threatened Government, demanding that it shall settle the mies within a fixed time. It is added that Senor eon y Castillo's visit to Madrid is connected with his matter. There may be some truth in all this ut we can imagine the drop on Monday arose from the report that Captain Brownson was at once going to France and England to examine the ships offered for sale to the United States, and to the knowledge that the Republic was hurrying forward its military preparations in all haste. In appearance the messages passing between the Cabinets of Washington and Madrid are very friendly and calming, but every one sees that the deeds do not spond with the words. The solution of the blem lies in the pacification of Cuba. When that emplished all the clouds that now arise from the United States will disappear of themselves."

A BISHOP'S CIRCULAR.

The "Globe," Government organ, sees with regret the circular issued by the Bishop of Plasencia for-bidding his clergy to support Liberal candidates. It considers the pronouncements of Cardinal Cascajares and the Bishop of Plasencia run directly counter to the reported exhortations of the Pope respect all political legality whether it be mon-"Moreover, they lead the ill-disposed to believe the Roman Curia is playing a double part, the capable." The "Globe" then asks:

"Is there any connection between this unfortu-nate rebellion of the Spanish episcopacy and the suggested journey of Don Jaime and his assumption of the Pretender's rôle, which also appears on the placards, although the Carlists deny it? Is it possible that, in the furtherance of a political design, some persons are preparing the ruin, the discredit of this poor nation and the sacrifice of those useful lives which have been spared by the colonial wers? The Spanish episcopate ought to dissipate these doubts, and ought at least to realize that similar manifestations are inopportune.

"Imparcial" regrets that Spain applies to external politics the dilatory tactics she is accustomed to use in internal affairs. "This, to a great extent, it explains, "arises from the fact that for the greater part of the century Spain has but little mixed herself with outside politics, for we have lived like a nation shut up in its shell, stewing in Continuing, the "Imparcial" says that for more than two years it has warned the country that, to be feared by the Cuban insurgents, it was neces-sary to be respected by the United States; that to avoid war, it was necessary to be prepared for it and to let it be seen that Spain was prepared for it. It then asserts that while the Conservatives were power all warnings were wasted, and the "Imparcial" is far from certain that the Liberals have profited by its advice. "Time will show," it adds, in the mean time we rest with an easy con

The "Heraldo" comments on the Paris telegram stating that Don Jaime de Bourbon, who is at present at Cannes, staying at the Villa Henry IV, will shortly receive the Spanish Carlist Deputies and afterward proceed to Spani, where he will declare himself thara' acto der Pretender. The "Heraldo" remarks that it will say nothing to augment the gravity of this news. It then says:

"The fact that our correspondent makes no hestation as to the accuracy of his information forces us to believe that he considers it the correct reflection of Carlist views, more especially if we hear in mind that the Carlist organ in Madrid. "El Correce Espanol," has, during the last few days, accentuated the threats it has been lavishing for months past.

DON CARLOS AND HIS SON.

DON CARLOS AND HIS SON.

Nevertheless, it would not be wise to take for granted that Don Carlos de Bourbon has decided to surrender his pretended claims to his son, Don Jaime, in whom the Carilst enthusiasts place their hopes Although it is certain that many wish again to get civil war ablaze without regard to the accented state of the country, such a criminal intention will find no echo in the country, not even within those circles of traditionalism which still follow Don Carlos. We therefore hope that fresh news may correct or clear up that scent by our correspondent in Paris, which is undoubtedly although it may only refer to plans which may fall through."

The "Liberal" says: "Ministerialists say that The "Liberal" says: "Ministerialists say that there is absolutely no ground whatever for the belief that Don Jaime de Bourbon proposes shortly to visit Spain in order to declare himself Pretender. But it is clear that should Don Carlos's son come to Spain he would do so by hoodwinking the vigiliance of the authorities, a thing not difficult to perform. It is not in that vigiliance the district of the authorities at thing not difficult to perform. It is not in that vigiliance the Government base their denial that Don Jaime will enter Spain. They have information as to the decigns of the Carlists which enables them to state that the Carlist party has no intention of committing any act in which Don Jaime could take part. This appears to be confirmed by other well-authorized reports.

The "Globe" referring to the rumor that Don Jaime, the "restless" son of Don Carlos, would in a short time come to Spain to execute a deed which should accredit him Pretender, his father resigning in his favor his rights to the crown, says well-ing in his favor his rights to the crown, says well-ing in his favor his rights to the crown, says well-ing in his favor his rights to the crown, says well-ing in his favor his rights to the law "-in order to protest against the policy pursued by national governments during the last years.

The "Pais" Revolutionary, neads an article, "King Jaime." In which it banters the "Heraldo" on the subject of its telegram, bidding it to rejoice father than be sad, since the Spanish revenue must at least benefit by the charge for the stamp on the "Dead of Pretender," which Don Jaime is coming to Spain to execute.

The "Correc" publishes a marifesto to the Carlises, urging them to do all in their power at the approaching elections to return Carlist candidates as being the only party which has clean hands in the late disgraceful humiliations of Spain, and as there is absolutely no ground whatever for the be-

The "Correo" published all in their power as arging them to do all in their power approaching elections to return Carlist candidates approaching elections to return Carlist candidates as being the only party which has clean hands in the late disgraceful humiliations of Spain, and as being the only party which can restore to Spain her ancient honor and glory. TOPICS IN THE FATHERLAND

Berlin, March 19. A COUNTER-DEMONSTRATION .- As a counter erals in honor of the revolution, the officers of the Gard du Corps decorated the monument over the graves of the soldlers killed in the street fights, the Emperor causing a wreath with his initials to be deposited at the foot of the memorial column.

KAISER RESENTS A SLIGHT.—The strained relations with the Prince Regent of Bavaria was strikingly illustrated by the latter's invitation asking His Majesty to attend the unveiling of to Emperor William I in the Walhalla at Ratisbon although it was known to everybody that the En peror had arranged to unveil the same day three statues in honor of his ancestors on the Sieges Allee. The Regent's invitation was evidently in Allee. The Regent's invitation was evidently intentionally sent so late that it was impossible to change the plans. The Emperor replied to the slight characteristically by deputing Prince Frederick Henry, the youngest and least important of the Prussian Princes, to attend the ceremony at Ratisbon in his behalf. In court circles it is said Emperor William still most unpleasantly remembers his reception at Nuremberg last summer, when the people shouted insulting epithets at him.

MORE AGRARIANISM.-It is believed in Parliamentary circles that an important resolution will be introduced in the Diet by the Agrarian leaders. Von Mendel and Ring, asking for a uniform leaders. Von Mendel and Ring, asking for a uniform and rigorous inspection of meats at frontier stations, and urging the Government to exert influence to secure a similar decree from the Bunderath. If it be passed, the measure will be a hit at all foreign meats, including American meats, and the United States consuls fear it may be construed unfairly and seriously injure American imports.

SUGAR MEN COMPLAIN.-The sugar manufacturers of the Rhine, at a special meeting just held, have requested the Government to inform them definitely whether the proposed conference on the sugar bounty question is to meet at Brussels. There is widespread complaint at the delay and uncertainty. The belief that the conference will meet in February had largely affected sales and purchases, and its failure to meet would have a disastrous effect upon prices.

AMERICAN HORSES AT AUCTION.-The first large auction of American horses took place in Berlin this week. All prominent sporting men at-tended, including Prince Carl Hugo von Hohenlohe, tended, including Frince tari Hugo von Honemone, the Prince of Thurm and Taxis and Baron von Fuerstenberg. The bidding was lively, and three hundred horses were sold in eighty minutes. Drivers and riders averaged 709 to 1,200 marks. The Agrarian press is indignant, and the "Kreuz-Zeitung" expressed the hope that the Government will take steps to prevent "cheap American horses from injured the domestic horse-breeding."

CARDINAL KOPP'S MISSION.-The mission of Cardinal Kopp, the Bishop of Breslau, to Rome is much commented upon. Advices from Rome indicate that it has been a failure, the Pope deciding to continue to recognize French protection of the Catholic missions in China. France has been actively opposing Cardinal Kopp.

FOR REDUCTION OF TONNAGE TAXES. Washington, March 19.-Representative Payne, chairman of the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries of the House, to-day reported favorably from his committee the bill concerning ton nage tax, which was passed by the last House. It reduces the tonnage tax on foreign vessels from American countries, subject to the tax to two cents American countries, subject to the tax to two cents a ton at each entry, providing that the tax shall not exceed in the aggregate lo cents a year. This is in place of the tax of 30 cents a ton a year under the present law. On vessels from other foleign countries a duty of six cents a ton not to exceed 50 cents a year) is imposed.

A Most Wonderful Exhibit of Silks and Dress Goods.

They say-and it is justly said-that the strength of a Dry Goods Store is measured by the calibre of its Silk and Dress Goods stock, and we are more than willing to have our measure taken by this yardstick. A stroll through the broad, well-lighted and superbly stocked Silk and Dress Goods aisles will impress any impartial observer that if this is not the Silk and Dress Goods centre of New York, it surely ought to be. There is no question but that some stores will show you both Silks and Dress Goods costlier than any that we have, and yet you'll oft find their best here, at our small prices. Others may have Silks and Dress Goods at lower prices than we can name, since THIS store stops, where quality must be sacrificed for price. But, looking at the Silk and Dress Goods situation from a sensible point of view—the view taken by women—to whom the utmost elegance of fashion and greatest possible price economy are of equal importance, this store must needs impress itself forcibly as the best store to buy Silks and Dress Goods at, since all our dealings are religiously restricted to the thoroughly reliable, absolutely up-to-date grades, and all our prices are always and unexceptionally lower than either Silks or Dress Goods of equal excellence
